The political progress of Mr. Jerome is interesting every one. He is a remarkable man, a strong personality and singularly popular. He wants to be District Atforney. I believe that the county of New-York will secure his re-election to that office if he presents himself as a candidate. We must not forget that Mr. Jerome's influence is felt quite beyond the county of New-York. The great consolidated city requires his services. The good which could be accomplished for the metropelis and, indirectly, for all municipalities, by an administration of a Mayor like Jerome can hardly be overestimated.

he overestimated. I have heard it said that if Jerome were Mayor he would either be the most popular executive this or any city has ever seen or that he would be lynched. This statement has half of the truth, at least. It means that Jerome is a positive man. Every one understands his character and his disor any city has ever seen or that he would be lynched. This statement has half of the truth, at least. It means that Jerome is a positive man. Every one understands his character and his disposition. Every man knows what he intends to do in any given situation. He calls a spade a spade, the is no respecter of persons. He is popular in the crowded tenement districts, but no less so emong the denizers of Fifth-ave. All believe him to be a man of his word, to be honest and untainted. This is the type of man we need at this time, especially in prominent stations both in the world of business and the world of politics. It is impossible to get such a man by means of the ordinary charmels of politics. Buch a man would always be troublesome to the machines, and defeat their purely selfish aims. A machine wants this involve disloyalty to the interests of the city. I cennet make this too strong.

Should New-York City be governed mainly by Mr. Murphy and Mr. McGarren and their allies, the surface, elevated and subway companies?

Mr. Jerome, I believe, does not advocate parting with the people's rights in our streets to any man or to any group of men. He favors short leases to operating companies, of say twenty years, with adequate compensation to the city. He believes, I trust, in giving the city power to fewn and operate, if need he, all public utilities, as some of us sought to realize for New-York City to day.

The relation of the municipality to public service corporations build constitute the real government of New-York City to-day.

The relation of the municipality to public service corporations is the question of the hour. The next Mayor and Board of Estimate will hold office for few years. The people do not wish to see hundreds of millions worth of franchises virtually given away by such board to monopolies during such four years. Wall Street does. Wall Street is satisfied with Mr. McClellan. Republicans and Democrats alike, owning gas stock and traction stocks, desire Tammany's re-election.

Queens Democrats Want Him to Run Again -Will Support Tammany.

Queens Borough Democratic clubs held their annual outing yesterday at Witzel's Point View Grove, College Point, Long Island. 'The clubs from Long Island City and Newtown went to the grove in a steamboat and one barge, while those from the Rockaways, Flushing and Jamaica journeyed there by trolley. Fully four thousand Democrats gathered in the blg hall for dinner last night and Borough President Cassidy was cheered when he entered and took his place at the head of the main From all parts of the hall came cries. Attorney George A. Gregg would be renominated and that the party would support Tammany Hall in every particular.

Democratic leaders present declared that President Cassidy would carry Queens by a greatly increased majority. Joseph Bermel. Commissioner of Public Works, who is leader in Newtown, was all over the place. When Cassidy was nominated two years ago he declared, according to Bermel's friends, that it was his last term, and that Bermel should succeed him. Commissioner Bermel, it is known, will make a fight for the nomination if Cassidy decides not to be a candidate again.

SHERMAN PAYS HIS BILL.

Mount Vernon Woman Sits Over Water Valves All Day.

Corporation Counsel Roger M. Sherman, of Mount Vernon, has paid his water bill. This was the news that flashed over Mount Vernon late yesterday, causing surprise among the people who have joined with him in fighting the Interurban Water Company. Mr. Sherman came to time after a visit by the company's men, who threatened to cut off Mr. Sherman's water supply at once if the bill were not paid.

Though Mr. Sherman had been forced to capitulate, Mayor Brush has not given up his fight against the water trust to compel it to reduce the present rate, which, he alleges, is filegal and exorbitant. Last night the Mayor issued summonses for the collecters of the water company to appear before him next Monday on a charge of violating a city ordinance which Mayor Brush got through the Common Council I few weeks ago, prohibiting the water company from cutting off the water supply of consumers who refused to pay while the contract of the Interurban company was being tested in the courts. It is said that if the Mayor finds the collectors guilty on Monday he will start immediately after the officers of the company and compel them to appear before him on similar charges.

The action of the company is causing merry wer all over the city. Every hour employes of the company have tilts with taxpayers who refuse either to pay or to allow their supply reduse either to pay or to allow their supply to be stopped. In many cases the police have been called upon to preserve order. Mrs. Wilhelmine Voss, who lives at No. 6 South Westst. was visited by a representative of the company yesterday, who threatened to turn off her water supply. The valves are under the sidewalk and Mrs. Voss brought out a rocking chair and sat over them all day. She declares that she will sit on the valves every day, if necessary until the Mayor's suit is decided.

COOLIES HELD FOR GRAND JURY.

Magistrate Breen Passes Puzzling Case to Higher Authority.

The seven coolies charged with an assault on the second engineer of the British ship Dordogne again were arraigned before Magistrate Breen in the Tombs Court yesterday afternoon. Assistant District Attorney Bacon was present and said that the police exceeded their authority in going aboard the ship and taking the men to land. He said, although the coolies were in the custody of the po-lice, they were technically allowed to land in the United States, which is diametrically contrary to the Chinese Exclusion act. Charles Cox, an attorney, representing the British government, assured the magistrate that he had jurisdiction in the case, and the examination proceeded. Captain Gray, of the Dordogne, the first mate and the engineer gave their versions of the alleged mutiny, and positively identified two of the Chinamen, who, they said, were the ring-leaders. The men identified were Chuy Yung and

In the courtroom, armed with handcuffs to clap on the Chinamen, should the magistrate discharge them, were United States Marshal Henkel and four deputies and Government Agent Duke, in charge of the Chinese Bureau at Ellis Island, and seven deputies. Magistrate Breen finally decided to hold all seven for the grand jury and let that body decide which of the seven had committed the assult on the second engineer.

ANOTHER JEROME BOOM. MERCHANIS' TRUST BIDS. ARMY AND NAVY NEWS. NO STRIKE ARBITRATION.

Highest, $2,215,000 - Depositors Will Take 95 Cents on Dollar.

At the meeting of the Merchants' Trust Company Depositors' Association, at No. 917 8th-ave., last night, Isaac Pennermacour, president of the association, reported that the committee, of which be was chairman, appointed at a previous meeting of the association to meet the receivers of the trust company, had succeeded in meeting Douglas Robinson, one of the receivers, yesterday afternoon and found him busy signing checks to pay to the depositors 40 per cent of their deposits.

Mr. Pennermacour said that Mr. Robinson asked the committee if it could make good its promise to get the proposition of $2,200,000 for the assets of the company. The chairman said that the receivers did not think that enough, and then the committee raised the bid to $2.215,600. According to the committee, the receiver said that he thought the assets should bring $3,000,000. The amount offered by the committee was declared to be enough to pay all the depositors in full and leave a balance of $165,000 for the expenses of the receivership.

B. Levinson made a proposition that the committee be authorized to tell the receivers that the de positors would be willing to take 96 cents on $1. "Say to Robinson," said Mr. Levison, "you want $2,300,000. Now, you have an offer of $2,215,000. We will pay the balance. We will even do better; we will take 36 cents on the dollar, if it is paid within two weeks."

This proposition raised a storm of protest, different members declaring that they should receive all their money that they had deposited; that they were entitled to it. After some discussion it was declared that that was not a wise proposition, as there were more than five thousand depositors who would have to consent to that arrangement, and there were only about forty-five at the meeting.

Mr. Levison, who was appointed on the comm tee to see District Attorney Jerome, said that the committee had a talk with Acting District Attorney Gans, but would not disclose the result of the con versation.

The committee was authorized to see the receivers and demand that they immediately accept the bid of $2.215,000 and pay off all depositors. This the committee will do on Monday, when they again meet Mr. Robinson.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday night at the same place.

The Pennemacour committee of depositors of the Merchants' Trust Company, at a conference yesterday morning with the receivers, had some of their misapprehensions as to the work of the receivership cleared up. The committee announced that according to their information E. Clarence Jones & Co., various offers from whom for the falled trust company's assets have been reported, were now prepared to offer $2,300,000 for the entire assets. They were greatly surprised at being told that that firm had earlier in the morning of yesterday made an offer of $2,150,000. A representative of the Jones firm was sent for, who came over to the conference and repeated that his bid would be $2,150,000. The depositors committee expressed the opinion that the bid was too small, and urged the receivers not to accept it. The committee, on leaving the conference, expressed their satisfaction with the heading of pressed their satisfaction with the handling of the affairs of the defunct company by the re-

Clarence Jones & Co. also made an offer of $1.800,000 for the Merchant Trust Company as-sets, exclusive of its holdings of securities of the Rutland properties, but it is understood that the receivers are not favorably impressed with the receivers are not favorably impressed with the offer and are not likely to recommend to the court that it be accepted. The receivers, it is learned, are in negotiation with interests whose identity cannot be learned for the sale to them of the Rutland holdings for $450,000. It is not probable that any bid for the assets as an entirety would be accepted, as a large part of the assets have already been converted into cash, out of which a dividend of 40 per cent will be paid next week to the depositors, and the receivers do not perceive any advantage to the trust company in selling cash for cash.

WANT BELCHER DECLARED BANKRUPT

Petition Filed by Creditors-Many Attachments Against Estate.

Paterson, Aug. 10 (Special) .- Counsel for the creditors of William H. Beicher to-day made applica-tion to Judge Lanning, of the United States District Court, to have Belcher declared an intary bankrupt. The court is asked to appoint Daniel L. Campbell receiver to take charge of the estate of Belcher. Several attachments have been sworn out against Belcher before justices in the upper part of the county. It is to keep Beicher's estate intact, so that it can be administered for the equal benefit of all the creditors, that the petition in bankruptcy was filed.

There are several workmen on Beicher's farms who have not been paid, and it is feared that if they do not receive their wages they will quit work, thereby endangering the crops. As soon as the receiver is appointed he can pay the men and dispose of the crops.

David Young, president of the Board of Aldermen, will at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning assume the full functions of the Mayor. He will begin by retiring Mayor Belcher's private secretary, Robert Burke, and appointing William H. Young, a law-

Trial of Isham Shell a Disappointment to Inventor.

Sandy Hook. Aug. 10.-Government officials this fternoon witnessed a trial at the proving grounds of the new Isham shell, but it is said the shell did not come up to the required regulations of the army and navy, and the inventor and others inter-

The shell was charged with 173 pounds of dynamite, and fired from a 12-inch modern coast defence gun against a 12-inch iron plate. The shell exploded all right, but only made a comparatively small dent in the plate.

RETORT TO FIRE CHIEF CROKER.

Water Supply Not to Blame for St. Thomas's Fire, Says Deputy.

"Chief Croker has the habit of trying to lay the blame on some other department every time a fire gets away from him," said Frank J. Goodwin. Deputy Commissioner of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, yesterday. That was the only statement Mr. Goodwin would make about complaints that there were too few hydrants in working order near St. Thomas's Church when that building was destroyed by fire, and that the water pressure was poor in the district.

"Chief Croker is a chronic complainer and blackguard," said I. K. De Varona, chief engineer of the water suply system of the city. "He makes an outery about zomehody else being at fault whenever he fails to stop a big fire. Now, it happens that while there is need of more hydrants and more water mains for fire extinguishing purposes in some parts of the city that is not true of the district in which St. Thomas's Church was burned. Within the last three years we have laid eleven 12 inch mains and one 20 inch main for fire purposes in that district. The 20-inch main for fire purposes in that district. The 20-inch main is in 6th-ave, and the 12-inch mains are in 42d, 43d, 44th, 45th, 46th, 45th, guard," said I. K. De Varona, chief engineer of

[FROM THE TRIBUNE BUREAU.] NATIONAL RESERVE NEEDED .- It is hoped by the officers of the General Staff and General Chaffee that something will be offered to Congres next session on the subject of a national reserve Experts of the General Staff are giving special consideration to the problem, which they do not find easy of solution; mainly for the reason that there are some ticklish points of politics, sec tional prejudice and militia interests involved. the subject were cleared of these troublesome features it would still be a considerable problem say the officers who are familiar with the subject. Reports have been obtained from a variety of military sources, including officers of the regular establishment and those of the national guard orestablishment and those of the national guard organizations who are in a position to offer suggestions. It is realized that in time of war it will be absolutely necessary to have a trained reserve force which can be called into service promptly. In this way it will be possible to get an enlisted body properly equipped with weapons which the members know how to use and officered by the commissioned personnel familiar with the duties devolving on those in command. The principal difficulty is in adjusting such a force so as to make use of available people in various parts of the country. It is purposed to establish a system of regimental recruiting and have certain regiments connected with prescribed geographical sections of the country. It is feared by army officers who are interested in this subject that, no matter what is proposed, there will be more or less opposition to the plan and that the approved measure of relief will be impaired by various influences which seck, for one reason or another, to amend the scheme while it is before Congress. It is realized that this sort of influence will do much to frustrate the efforts of the General Staff in its plan for establishing a reserve force.

Associate Editor of "The New Yorker" Sent to the Tombs.

Detective Flood, of the District Attorney's office. yesterday arrested Robert A. Irving, one of the editors of "The New-Yorker," the weekly publication of which Robert W. Criswell, who killed himself ago, was editor. Irving was arrested in the office of the paper, No. 23 Thomas-st., and taken to the Tombs court.

The warrant for Irving's arrest was issued at the same time as the warrant upon which Criswell was arrested for alleged libel, in "The New-Yorker." of an Ohio Congressman in connection the recent visit of Miss Alice Roosevelt to the family of Congressman Longworthy, of Cincinnati, but Irving was out of town, and it could not be served. The fact that there was such a warrant in existence was kept quiet until Irving returned to Irving was arraigned before Magistrate Breen, who fixed ball, for examination to-day, at $1,000 This sum Irving was unable to furnish, and he went to the Tombs.

According to Deputy Assistant District Attorney Krotel, who has charge of the prosecution, the name of Irving will be substituted for that of Criswell in the complaint on which Criswell was held. On application of Charles F. Thumm, attorney for Daniel Birdsall, a real estate agent, Justice Green, of the City Court, yesterday, appointed William B. Donihee, of No. 160 Broadway, receiver for Charles H. Ahle, in a suit brought to recover $90 from Ahle, rent due for the apartment at No 73 Lexington-ave., formerly occupied by him. Ahle is now out on bail for an alleged attempt to blackmail E. M. Post in giving him $500 to keep a certain article concerning the broker out of "Town

Topics."

In his hunt for assets Mr. Thumm found that Ahle had $40 on deposit in the Bank of New-Amsterdam. This money has been attached. The lawyer also found that Ahle lived at Northport, Long Island, but when he went there he was told that Ahle had sold all his property at private sale and disappeared for parts unknown. A child of Ahle's present wife by a former husband was boarding with a Mrs. Vanderbilt in that village, and had been left behind.

ELEVATED CAR JUMPS TRACK.

Narrowly Escapes Falling to Street on West Farms Line.

The northbound tracks of the West Farms extension of the "L" were blocked for two hours yesterday by a train which left the rails at Bryantst. and Boston Road. The motor car jumped the track, owing, it is said, to the spreading of the rails. It climbed from the rails of the middle track to the rails of the northbound track, and was stopped by the motorman when the platform had forged out over the structure, thirty-five feet

No one but the motorman, switchman and two guards were on the train, which was being backed down to be laid up for the night rush hours.

Nearly all the glass in the motor car was broken, and the heavy sleepers of the bed torn so that the wrecking crew was at work for more than two hours before the track was cleared.

GOLD BADGE FOR FIRE CHIEF.

Superintendent of Great Northern Will Not Confer with Telegraphers.

St. Paul. Aug. 10.-There will be no arbitraion of the strike of the telegraphers against the Great Northern Railroad. That was finally decided to-day by General Superintendent Slade, who made a statement to that effect. He when 90, per cent of our men have returned to work it does not seem likely that we would arbitrate with the other 10 per cent, does it?

This is our position. We cannot afford to arbitrate with a handful of men whom we consider not of sufficient worth to retain on our payrolls. Of the men whom we have put back to work about twenty-five, or at the outside fifty, are new men. We have 536 stations and old employes are managing approximately 450 of them. We have had reports over our own wires from our own men to-day east of Minote, showing that our passenger trains are running on time. Our freight service is also running regularly. regularly.

Within the last few days there have been nunerous suggestions that the matter under con troversy be submitted to arbitration, and Mr. Hill has been requested to intervene in the matter. His feeling is expressed in the following telegram from New-York, addressed to Superintendent Slade and received this morn-

Reported here commercial bodies St. Paul petitioning company arbitrate telegraphers' strike. Have absolutely nothing to arbitrate with men who go out without notice.

Governor Johnson this afternoon received a letter from President Perham of the telegraphers, accepting the Governor's offer of arbitration. Up to a late hour this afternoon Governor Johnson had not received any reply to his letter to President Hill or President Elliott. C. Bunn, general counsel for the Northern Pacific Railway Company, had a lengthy conference with the Minnesota Executive to-day. Beyond the fact that the conference had to do with the strike situation, nothing was given out by the executive department.

Governor Johnson was asked what would be done if arbitration failed and the strike continued. The Governor said:

It is up to the Railroad and Warehouse Commission to act. I think they have it in their power to compel the opening of closed stations.

Frederick E. Carlton, whose record as the husband of a number of women has been under in-vestigation by Police Inspector Cross, of Brooklyn, was held for the Court of Special Sessions yester on a charge of violating the section of the Penal Code relating to obscene pictures. Bail was fixed at $1,000 Testimony was taken to show that he had photographed a nude woman and had afterward placed on the picture the head of a young woman acquaintance with the idea of making persons be lieve that she had been the original subject of the photograph. This woman testified that Carlton had told her he would exhibit the photograph unless she would accept his attentions. While Henry Schaub, former friend of Carlton, was testifying, the prisoner tried to disconcert him with his eye, and once said flercely: "Be careful now!"

Although Dr. P. C. O'Connor, who is making a chemical analysis of the organs of the second Mrs. Carlton, whose body was exhumed a month ago, has made no report to the District Atterney of Kings County, it was said yesterday that he had found no traces of poison, but had discovered tetanus germs.
